

GGHS PHD ALUMNI NETWORK AND WORKSHOP

BRIDGING GLOBAL GOVERNANCE AND HUMAN SECURITY IN A DIVIDED WORLD

Overview

WHEN	Friday May 31 9:30am-12:45pm
WHERE	Educational Divide Reform (EDR) Institute Seminar Room of the EDR Hall 6 Manassas Ave. Cambridge, MA 02138
PARTICIPANTS	• Faculty • Ph.D. Alumni of GGHS • Students of CRHSGG • Other scholars interested in GGHS
SCHEDULE	9-9:20am	Reception/Networking (Breads and coffee/tea provided)
	9:20-9:30	Greetings from Kiki Edozie and Stacy VanDeveer
	9:30am-10am	Opening Talk "The Original Vision of the GGHS Program" - Speaker (TBC): Winston, Craig, Maria
	10am-11am	(Theme 1): Bridging GG and HS - Can it Work? - Panel (TBC): Stacy, Deborah, Jane, Jay
	11am-11:15am	Coffee Break
	11:15am-12:15pm	(Theme 2): Lessons Learned from the GGHS Experience – Panel (TBC); Yuliya, Modupe, Teresa, Jason
	12:15pm-12:45pm	Closing Comments (by Craig, Cynthia, Maria)
	12:45pm-2pm	Lunch (lunch provided)

Why this Workshop?

- Reflection on Conflict Resolution, Human Security and Global Governance Program
- Co-relationship between Global Governance and Human Security: Global Governance --- Human Security on Local/Ground Level ("Bridging GG and HS in Divided World" is one of the most challenging issues to most PhD students.)
- Identity of GGHS in Post-multilateral world
- Improve coherence among alumni/students/faculty and launch a GGHS PhD alumni network to support the CRHSGG Department.

This workshop will be sponsored by EDR, Stephan Manning (UMB), McCormack Graduate School and the Global Governance and Human Security PhD program. at UMass Boston (TBC)